Write an ALP that will convert a series of 10, 16-bit data stored from location dat1 in little endian format to big endian format.